SYNDICATE SEEKS

City Ready to Sell $2,900,000 Land-War Memorial Plan Complicates Deal.

Although contracts have not been signed, it is generally believed that the Grand Union Hotel site, at the southeast corner of Park avenue and Forty-second street, has been sold by the city Cedar Cliff, Pleasantville, N. Y., to E. to Henry Mandel, the operator who represents a syndicate which would like to Scarsdale, N. Y. build a tall office building or hotel there. The Amsterdam Development and Mr. Mandel said last evening that he is Sales Company sold at Malverne, Long Mr. Mandel said last evening that he is ready to offer $2,900,000, the city's upset | 100, on Norwood avertie, and to May J. price for the property, through Henry Raunick, a plot 100x105, at the corner Brady, auctioneer for the Transit Con- of Nottingham road and Lindner place. struction Commission, and the matter is opposite the new home of the Malverne now in the hands of the lawyers for the syndicate and John H. Delaney, Commissioner of Transit Construction. Mr. Mandel said he was aware that the Victory Hall Association is pretty apt to seize the site for its War Meapt to seize the site for its war Me-morial Building providing it succeeds in leased for Arthur M. Lockhart his cotraising the money necessary to buy all tage on Madison averue to Mrs. Fan the land and buildings in the block Pokress; for E. W. Schilling, cottage on bounded by Park and Lexington avenues and Forty-second and Forty-first streets. A special legislative enactment was passed last winter enabling the associafor that purpose.

"I am convinced," said Mr. Mandel "that the Grand Union site is not appropriate for a memorial of this kind we shall not attempt to stand in the way of its promoters if we happen to own the Grand Union site when the get rendy to condemn. In fact we no doubt will be ready to sell to the association if proper terms can be ar

Mr. Mandel intimated that whatever improvement the syndicate back of him contemplates for the site will be post-poned until the plans of the Victory Hall Association are more definite than they are at present. According to Gen. George A. Wingate, head of the association, will be necessary to raise at least $16.
